BSX Rules

- Platform pedals only, no clip pedals or clip shoes allowed!
- This is a BMX event, only BMX bikes are allowed.
- Full race gear should be worn, including; full face helmet, full fingered gloves, shoes, long pants and long sleeves.
- Riders can choose their lane for their timed qualifying lap. Riders who fall in their time trial will not get a second chance, they should attempt to complete their timed run.
- Only the fastest 32 pro open men, top 32 pro open women, top 32 30 & over riders and the top 8 for block 1 classes, according to time trial results, will continue to the elimination rounds.
- Riders who qualify to the elimination rounds must wear the event number plate as supplied without covering the event sponsors logos. The numbers should not be changed or modified in any way. Block 2 riders only - Once you are eliminated you must sign the plate and return it to the race officials at the finish line.
- In the elimination rounds riders must stick to their side of the track without causing interference until the second straight. The lanes are decided by the rider from each round with the fastest qualifying time from the time trial. The winner of each round is determined by the rider who crosses the finish line first.
- Prize money for block 2 riders will be payback for open men & women and 30+ class (Max $1000 for pro open, $500 for other classes, remainder will be donated to the RCH). Entry fee is $30 per rider. The breakdown of the money is 1st = 40%, 2nd = 30%, 3rd = 20%, and 4th = 10%. The winner of the semi finals will race for 1st & 2nd and the riders who place second in the semi finals will race for 3rd & 4th.
- Prizes for block 1 riders will be trophies.

Spectators pay at the gate: $10 adult (14 and over) | $5 children (6-13) | free children (under 6) | $25 family (2 adults, 3 children)
